

VELORA 1.0 — Dare to Compete

In association with  IEEE

The wait is over! Out of all the amazing submissions, we have officially shortlisted 56 teams and placed 10 teams on our waitlist for VELORA 1.0. A huge congratulations to those who made the cut!

(Quick heads-up: The list below is in no particular order and does not represent your evaluation scores). To the teams that didn't make it this round—don't lose heart. The ideas were fantastic, and this is just one stepping stone in your journey. Keep hacking! To our finalists and waitlisted teams, gear up. We are beyond excited to see what you build at the hackathon!
